Plaintiffs will amend or supplement this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of such fictitiously-named Defendants when the same have been ascertained.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Plaintiffs restate and reallege each and every allegation contained above as if expressly rewritten herein.

18. In April of 2024, the City of Youngstown (hereinafter the “City”) entered into a “no-bid” contract with Greenheart to remove and relocate utilities in preparation for the City’s Road improvement project.

19. As a part of the contracted services, Greenheart agreed to remove utility lines, which included water, gas, electrical, data and phone lines, sprinkler lines as well as furnace water tanks from underneath the sidewalk in front of the Realty Tower.

20. At all times relevant to this Complaint, the natural gas lines in and near the Realty Tower were owned jointly and/or separately by Enbridge, Enbridge Gas, Enbridge Elephant, Enbridge Alternative, Enbridge Pipelines, Enbridge Genoa, Enbridge U.S., Enbridge EOG, Dominion Energy and Questar.

21. On May 28, 2024, four members of the “scrap-removal” crew engaged by Greenheart were removing old utilities and other items from the basement of the Realty Tower.

22. During this process, a member of the scrap-removal crew used a reciprocating saw to cut into one of the gas lines, which was believed to be inactive.

23. At that time, the Greenheart site supervisor was not present.

24. Immediately after the scrap-removal crew member began cutting the line, he immediately smelled natural gas, heard loud whistling and felt natural gas blowing into his face because the line was pressurized with natural gas.

25. The scrap-removal crew called 911, activated the fire alarms and evacuated the Realty Tower.

26. Approximately six (6) minutes after the line was cut, a catastrophic explosion occurred.

27. The catastrophic explosion caused serious bodily injury to Plaintiff, Christina D. Will.

28. As a result of serious bodily injuries to Plaintiff, Christina D. Will, Richard Will has also suffered compensable losses.

COUNT I

(Negligence—Enbridge)

29. Plaintiffs restate and reallege each and every allegation contained above as if expressly rewritten herein.

30. Enbridge owed Plaintiffs a duty to exercise reasonable and ordinary care in the preparation, management, distribution, and sale of the natural gas supplied to the Realty Tower.

31. Enbridge owed Plaintiffs a duty to exercise reasonable and ordinary care to warn, inspect, advise, instruct, and communicate with the contractors working in Realty Tower basement, including, but not limited to, providing accurate information pertaining to the pressurization of gas lines.

32. Enbridge breached its duty owed to the Plaintiffs by failing to use reasonable care to warn, inspect, advise, instruct, and communicate with the contractors working in Realty Tower basement.

33. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence of Enbridge, Plaintiff, Christina D. Will, suffered personal injuries, was required to seek medical care, suffered great pain of mind and body, incurred financial obligations, incurred economic loss, property damage, lost wages, as well as other injury, damage and loss, all of which will continue into the future.
